On this day, the Court considered Plaintiff's ex parte application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining Merchant Storefronts and Defendants' Assets with the Financial Institutions; 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; 4) an order authorizing bifurcated and alternative service and 5) an order authorizing expedited discovery against Defendants, Third Party Service Providers and Financial Institutions in light of Defendants' intentional and willful offerings for sale and/or sales of Counterfeit Products.<sup>1</sup> A complete list of Defendants is attached hereto as Schedule A, which also includes links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings. Having reviewed the Application, Declarations of David Capon and Gabriela N. Nastasi, along with exhibits attached thereto and other evidence submitted in support thereof, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

PRELIMINARY FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. FoxMind is a leading distributor of toys and games that offer mind stimulating fun while developing reasoning skills, spatial logic and other skills associated with science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) under its brands, including, but not limited to: Match Madness, Architecto, Figure It and Kulami.
2. One of FoxMind's most popular and successful brands is Pop It, a soothing tactile toy and smart bubble popping game designed to stimulate children's senses and develop logic and reasoning skills.
3. Pop It's popularity has soared in recent years due to over 2.5 billion people watching videos of people using Pop It Products on TikTok and other social media channels.
4. Pop It Products are sold by major U.S. retailers and e-commerce sites, such as Amazon,

<sup>1</sup> Where a defined term is referenced herein and not defined herein, the defined term should be understood as it is defined in the Glossary.

Target, Barnes and Noble, and Staples.

5. Pop It Products typically retail for between $7.99-$12.99.
6. While FoxMind has gained significant common law trademark and other rights in its Pop It Products through use, advertising, and promotion, FoxMind has also protected its valuable trademark rights to the Pop It Products by filing for and obtaining a federal trademark registration.
7. For example, FoxMind is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 6,183,005 for “POP IT!” for goods in Class 28.
8. The Pop It Mark is currently in use in commerce in connection with the Pop It Products.
9. The Pop It Mark was first used in commerce on or before the dates of first use as reflected in the registration attached to the Complaint as Exhibit C.
10. The success of the Pop It Products is due in part to FoxMind’s marketing and promotional efforts. These efforts include advertising and promotion through social media and other internet-based and print advertising, among other efforts domestically and abroad, including in New York.
11. FoxMind’s success is also due to its use of the highest quality materials and processes in making the Pop It Products.
12. Additionally, FoxMind owes a substantial amount of the success of the Pop It Products to its consumers and word-of-mouth buzz that its consumers have generated.
13. FoxMind’s efforts, the quality of the Pop It Products, the popularity of the Pop It Mark and the word-of-mouth buzz generated by its consumers have made the Pop It Mark and Pop It Products prominently placed in the minds of the public. Members of the public and retailers have become familiar with the Pop It Mark and Pop It Products and have come to associate them exclusively with FoxMind. FoxMind has acquired a valuable reputation and goodwill among the public as a result of such associations.

14. FoxMind has gone to great lengths to protect its interests in the Pop It Products and the Pop It Mark. No one other than FoxMind and its authorized licensees and distributors are authorized to manufacture, import, export, advertise, offer for sale or sell any goods utilizing the Pop It Mark, or use the Pop It Mark in connection with goods or services or otherwise, without the express permission of FoxMind.
15. Defendants are manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying and/or offering for sale Counterfeit Products through Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts with Amazon and/or Walmart Marketplace (see Schedule A for links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings).
16. Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, authorized distributors or licensees of the Pop It Products. Neither Plaintiff, nor any of Plaintiff's authorized agents, have consented to Defendants' use of the Pop It Mark, nor has Plaintiff consented to Defendants' use of marks that are confusingly similar to, identical to and constitute a counterfeiting or infringement of the Pop It Mark.
17. Plaintiff is likely to prevail on its Lanham Act and related common law claims at trial.
18. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiff's Application for ex parte relief is granted:
  - a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard Counterfeit Products that infringe the Pop It Mark;

- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for the Pop It Products; and
- c. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that if they proceed on notice to Defendants on this Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or other goods that infringe the Pop It Mark, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff's claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Pop It Mark, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from its sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Pop It Mark and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts and Merchant Storefront under new or different names and continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products with little to no consequence.

19. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the Pop It Mark and to its reputations if a temporary restraining order is not issued.

20. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its Pop It Mark, and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as Pop It Products.
21. Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way.
22. Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants.
23. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Pop It Mark. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes the Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days after service of the Order to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' Assets and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts and it is anticipated that it will take the Third Party Service Providers a minimum of five (5) days to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiff to serve the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers with this Order, and for the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants.
24. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products. Therefore,

Plaintiff has good cause to be granted expedited discovery.

ORDER
